

Carsten Mildner

BIGSAS Junior Fellow

Academic vita

Since 04/2016 Junior Fellow at BIGSAS

08/2012 Master of Science in Anthropology, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

09/2009 Bachelor of Arts in Applied African Studies: Culture and Society in Africa,
University of Bayreuth, Germany

Conference contributions

- 2016: Discussant in the panel "Doing/Undoing Norms" - International Conference on Beauty and the Norm: Debating Standardization in Bodily Appearance, University of Bayreuth
- 2013: "Untold Stories - Challenges in Narratives of Intellectually Disabled People" - Conference dedicated to the 35th anniversary of the Biography and the Society Research Committee: Biographical Research in the 21st Century, Uniwersytet Łódzki, Poland
- 2010: "'Who is fou?' Ethnographic Examples for a Constructivist Perspective on Insanity" - 1st StuMedAnth Meeting (MAYS EASA - Medical Anthropology Young Scholars - A Network of the European Association of Social Anthropologists), Freie Universität Berlin, Germany
- 2009: Keynote speech at Model United Nations (MUN) Regio Basel on the Millennium Development Goals (representing the Arnold-Bergstraesser-Institut Freiburg im Breisgau, Congress Center Basel, Switzerland)