

Catheline Bosibori Nyabwengi

BIGSAS Junior Fellow

Academic vita

Since 11/2020	Junior Fellow at BIGSAS
Since 2019	Doctoral candidate (African History), University of Bayreuth
2018 – 2019	Lecturer, Kiriri Women’s University of Science and Technology, Nairobi, Kenya
2015 – 2017	Graduate Assistant, Kenyatta University, Nairobi, Kenya
2014 – 2017	Master of Arts (History), Kenyatta University, Nairobi, Kenya
2015 – 2016	Assistant Researcher, Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relation (HIPSIR) in collaboration with Regional Centre on Small Arms (RECSA), Nairobi, Kenya
2010 – 2014	Bachelor of Education (Arts- History and CRE), Kenyatta University, Nairobi, Kenya

Publications

Bosibori, C. N. (2021): Mekatilili Wa Menza: Beyond Gender to Age and Status in Kenya’s Primary Resistance to Colonial Rule. Africa in Global History. Published here: <https://globalafrica.hypotheses.org/363>

Bosibori, C. N. & Atuhaire, G. (2020): Restoring Trust and Building Bridges: Addressing Online Radicalization in Africa. The Policy Corner. Published here: <https://www.policycorner.org/en/2020/05/17/restoring-trust-and-building-bridges-addressing-online-radicalization-in-africa/>

Conference contributions

- 2020: “Implication of COVID-19 on Youth Peace and security,” East Africa Youth Empowerment Forum on Peace and Security 2020, online series.
- 2019: “Organized Violence and Terrorism in Kenya”, Kenia Seminar, Stuttgart, Germany.
- 2018: “Terrorism and Violence in East Africa: The Role of Wealth and Political Power”, Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relation (HIPSIR), Nairobi, Kenya.
- 2016: “The Gender Dimension of Asylum Seeking and Refugee Protection: The Experience of Men, Women and Children Refugees in Kenya”, Kenyatta University Conference Centre, Nairobi, Kenya.

- 2016: “The Neo Scramble for Africa: The World Hegemonic Position as the Main Driver”; Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relation (HIPSIR), Nairobi, Kenya.
- 2015: “Third and Unlimited Presidential Syndrome in Africa”, Hekima Institute of Peace Studies and International Relation (HIPSIR), Nairobi, Kenya.

Achievements

- 2020: The Policy Corner 2020: Digital Transformation Competition; Position two.
- 2019: United Nations Office of Counterterrorism: 2019 Cyber Terrorism Challenge, Vienna, Austria; Third Runners up.